This course enable learners to attain internal quality assurer, formerly known as internal verifier, status.

The learners will attend 5 x 2 hour workshops, designed to cover the knowledge requirements and explore the practical aspects of the qualification.

Then the learners will meet with the assessor on a one to one basis to agree targets and review progress.

Course content:

- Establishing quality assurance procedures
- · Conducting quality assurance activities
- · Supporting monitoring and developing assessors
- Evaluating quality assurance procedures
- · Meeting internal and external requirements related to managing vocational programmes

After this course:

- The learner can work towards the Level 4 Certificate in Leading the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice, if the learner becomes responsible for managing assessors and other IQAs.
- Learners can also work towards PTLLS, CTLLS or DTLLS.

If you have up to date working knowledge and practical experience in a vocational area, and are a qualified assessor, this award will allow you to quality assure vocational qualifications in your centre.

Learners must be employed in a relevant work setting and have access to a minimum of two assessors, who both have two learners each, who are working towards achieving a vocational qualification.
